

Even if you do not have health insurance or are insured abroad, you can go to Amstelland Hospital for treatment. There are conditions attached to this.

Hospital (Clinic)/Outpatient clinic

Uninsured

If you are admitted to Amstelland Hospital or you come for outpatient care and you are not insured, you will have to pay the costs yourself. Prior to your visit, please report to the Registration Desk (during office hours). You will be registered and asked to pay an advance or the total amount of your treatment.

Insured abroad

In the case Amstelland Hospital has no agreement with the foreign health insurer the invoice cannot be declared directly. However, if you have a valid European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or E112/S2 form with you, you must present this to the employee at the registration desk. This allows the hospital to declare the invoice directly to Achmea Group Foreign Law. In all other cases, the registration desk will assess whether an advance payment is necessary.

Emergency Care

When you enter the hospital via the Emergency Department because you need first aid, we will always provide the basic care that is needed. You will be registered at the Emergency Department desk and an advance payment will also be collected there. The advance amounts can be found below. Your advance will be settled with the final invoice for your treatment

Advance amounts:
Radiology	€150
Outpatient clinic	€500
Admission to the hospital	€1,000
Admission on weekends or public holidays	€1,250

Payment options:

At Amstelland Hospital, you can pay by credit card (Visa or Mastercard only), debit card or with cash.

Medical information

If your insurance company asks for your medical information, you are responsible to provide any required information. The hospital will not provide this information on behalf of you.
